Dear Sirine Saed Abou Saleh,

On behalf of the Royal Institute of British Architects (RIBA), I extend a sincere congratulations to you on your graduation day.

RIBA have a history of promoting high quality and innovative architectural education throughout the world and thus we demand much from the courses we validated like that of the one you have graduated from. Being part of RIBA validated course meant that you have achieved excellence in architectural education. We want you to know that we recognise your hard work, and it has been a privilege for RIBA to have you on one of our international validated courses – you have been part of a globally recognised institute which strives to uphold professional standards globally.

As you embark upon and progress through your careers, I urge you to continue to be part of RIBA global community. RIBA has over 47,000 members in 115 countries. We have operational offices in the UK, Shanghai and UAE and have 6 international chapters in USA, Gulf, Hong Kong, Singapore, Sri Lanka and China that further deliver a whole host of exciting professional programme to keep you fully involved in the global architecture practices.

Let us help you to gain insight by using our unrivalled network of contacts globally within architecture and related professions to discuss the big issues affecting your profession and learn from the experiences of others. Our global is ready to welcome you to connect, share ideas and perspectives and collaborate with a community of architects and other built environment professionals. We have great ambitions to grow our international reach further and we would be delighted to continue to have you as part of our global community.

Congratulations again on your excellent achievement. The RIBA community is very proud of you, and we very much look forward to welcoming you as one of our valued global professional member!

Very Best wishes
